President's Report

Our Robbie Burns' party was a sold-out success with 105 members and friends attending. Thank you to Lorraine and team for a job well done.

The branch Valentine's party and auction held on February 13 had 81 tickets sold and was a complete success. Thanks goes to Lorraine who helped to make this a great evening. Thanks also to Pat Cher who organized the auction, which brought in $2,870 to go to local veterans. Thank you to all who donated items for the auction and to George Royle who did a great job of canvassing local businesses for items.

A special thanks to George Pollock for steam cleaning our cloth chairs.

The G6 Zone convention will be held at the Perth Legion on Sunday, March 13. Anyone wishing to go, please contact me for more information.

John Cher
President

From the First Vice

Well, here we are deep into winter and the weather is really doing a number on us. Good thing we are only doing half a winter this year, and it's almost over. We had a new furnace put in and now we are feuding with our dish washer! When will it end? Ah well, spring will come and bring with it a new beginning.

Since the last CONTACT! we have had several great events that I'm sure our entertainment page will show. Suffice it to say, we had a really spectacular Robbie Burns celebration again this year, a truly fun filled 'In House Sports Afternoon', a fabulous Valentine Dinner and Dance (with Debra), combined with an exciting fun-filled auction that brought a tidy sum to the branch to benefit our local veterans. Kudos to all who attended, those who participated and otherwise supported, YOU are what it takes to makes the legion work.

Thank you, one and all.

From the Sports Desk

Alas, our representation at the District G dart tournament in Kingston February 6, 2016, was met with such resistance that our team succumbed to defeat. Nevertheless, we can say they represented us soundly. It was an honour to have them characterize our branch, put us on the map so to speak. Never mind, guys, you have another year to practise and be ready. Just wait till next year!

Oh yes, 'mixed darts' is coming up March 19. Anybody interested? Call me! Following that, there will be 'horseshoes' May 14. Please note we have yet to participate in this sport! Come on, branch members (fellow horseshoe players) where are you? Call me! And then, (drum roll), GOLF in June! Here's hoping we can have a play-down for the opportunity to attend the zone golf tournament this year. Soon as the snow is gone we can form a branch team, take the best players and let them go forward to the zone tournament. Hoo hah! Keep it in mind. Call me!

Yours in Good Sports,

Dan Knighton

Paraprosdokians

(Winston Churchill loved them) are figures of speech in which the latter part of a sentence or phrase is surprising or unexpected and frequently humorous.

1. Where there's a will, I want to be in it.
2. The last thing I want to do is hurt you. But it's still on my list.
3. Since light travels faster than sound, some people appear bright until you hear them speak.
4. If I agreed with you, we'd both be wrong.
5. We never really grow up; we only learn how to act in public.
6. War does not determine who is right - only who is left.
7. Knowledge is knowing that a tomato is a fruit. Wisdom is not putting it in a fruit salad.
8. To steal ideas from one person is plagiarism. To steal from many is research.

More paraprosdokians to come in next month's issue.

A Minister Was Completing A Temperance Sermon. What The Song Leader Did Is Hilarious.

A minister was completing a temperance sermon. With great emphasis he said, 'If I had all the beer in the world, I'd take it and pour it into the river.'

With even greater emphasis he said, 'And if I had All the wine in the world, I'd take it and pour it into the river.'

And then finally, shaking his fist in the air, he Said, 'And if I had all the whiskey in the world, I'd take it and pour it into the river.'

Sermon complete, he sat down.

The song leader stood very cautiously and announced With a smile, nearly laughing, 'For our closing song, Let us sing Hymn #365, 'Shall We Gather at the River.'

The friend who just stands by

Submitted by Garry Fancy

When troubles come your soul to try,
You love the friend who just "stands by."
Perhaps there's nothing he can do ~
The thing is strictly up to you,
For there are troubles all your own,
And paths the soul must tread alone; ~
Times when love cannot smooth the road
Nor friendship lift the heavy load.

But just to know you have a friend
Who will "stand by" until the end,
Whose sympathy through all endures,
Whose warm handclasp is always yours, ~
It helps some way to pull you through
Although there's nothing he can do.
And so with fervent heart you cry
"God bless the friend who just "stands by."

23rd Annual Robert 'Rabbie' Burns Celebration

The Robbie Burns celebration tradition founded by J.P. Leclerc and Moira Green 23 years ago continued on January 23, 2016, at Branch #638. (Special thanks goes to Moira Green for the history of Branch #638's Robbie Burns Celebrations).

In celebration of the Scottish poet, guests wore their family name tartan and those who are not of Scottish descent found a tartan to wear, too!

Everybody is Scottish on Robbie Burns day! Decorations of tartans, photos of Scotland and more helped create the Scottish atmosphere. An excellent program followed starting with the piping in of the head table guests followed by the traditional Address to the Haggis, a menu (The Fairn) of Scottish dishes prepared and served by Leatherworks Catering, Star of Robbie Burns song and other songs of Robbie Burns, Toast to "The Immortal Memory", poetry of Robbie Burns, Toast to the Lassies, Toast to the Laddies, Scottish dances, piper's medley and piping interlude. The 107 guests also had the fun opportunity to meet the challenge of a quiz! Special thanks to the following key participants who helped make the evening program as excellent as it was: (some very talented people):

- Brenda Grant for piping in the head table, piping out the head table, Strip the Willow Dance Lesson and preparation of the quiz;
- John Cher for the welcome, Selkirk Grace and the Toast to the Piper;
- Dave Brown for the Parade of the Haggis and piping accompaniment to the Highland Fling dance demonstration;
- Tom Baker for the Address to the Haggis and another story in his Scottish brogue;
- Morley Connell as the Haggis Bearer;
- Denis Watson as the Dram Steward;
- Dan Knighton, The Loyal Toast;
- Bev Perron and Sylvie Perron for the Piping Interlude;
- Margaret Anthony for the Songs of Robbie Burns accompanied by Martin David;
- Dave McPherson, Toast to the "Immortal Memory";
- Moira Green for the poetry of Robbie Burns accompanied by Nancy Eadie;
- Heather Macdonald for the Highland Fling dance demonstration; introduction and history presented by Audrey;
- Peter Wilkins for the Toast to the Lassies;

Afternoon Games

Approximately 13 people attended the first of "Afternoon Games" on January 27, an opportunity for comradeship and fun while raising funds for the Homeless Veterans program. For $2, a participant played a round of six different games such as bean bag toss, car race, putting, ring toss and more. By the end of the afternoon 30 rounds were played totalling $60 for the Homeless Veterans fund. The first prize winner who would get half donated it back to the good cause. Thank you to those who came out. We all look forward to next month's "Afternoon Games" on Thurs., Feb. 25, from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome! A good opportunity to get out in the daylight hours, meet some people and have fun! Special thanks to Dan Knighton, event coordinator, Brenda Grant, Lorraine Lapensée, Amanda Robbins, Pat Cher, John Cher and Terry Jenkins for their contributions in making this event a success and to Mark Hunter for bar tending!

Valentine's Dinner ♥ Live Auction and Dance

The second annual charity Valentine event was held February 13, 2016, with over 80 people in attendance. Event proceeds to benefit local veterans. Guests enjoyed a delicious stuffed chicken buffet by Leatherworks Catering and then the bidding began! Auctioneer, John O'Neill, masterminded the live auction of 60 items resulting in over $2,800 raised! Guests danced the remainder of the evening to songs by Debra McCann! It was an awesome night!

A VERY BIG SPECIAL THANKS to Pat Cher for coordinating the event, particularly the live auction and "the guess what the object is" challenge! She did an excellent job!

The auction was the success it was as a result of the variety of items donated and, of course, those who bid in the auction. Thank you!

Special thanks to George Royle for pounding the pavement (snow) to collect auction items from businesses. Special thanks to those who donated or/and networked auction items!
